

Active and Confirmed by Country/Region

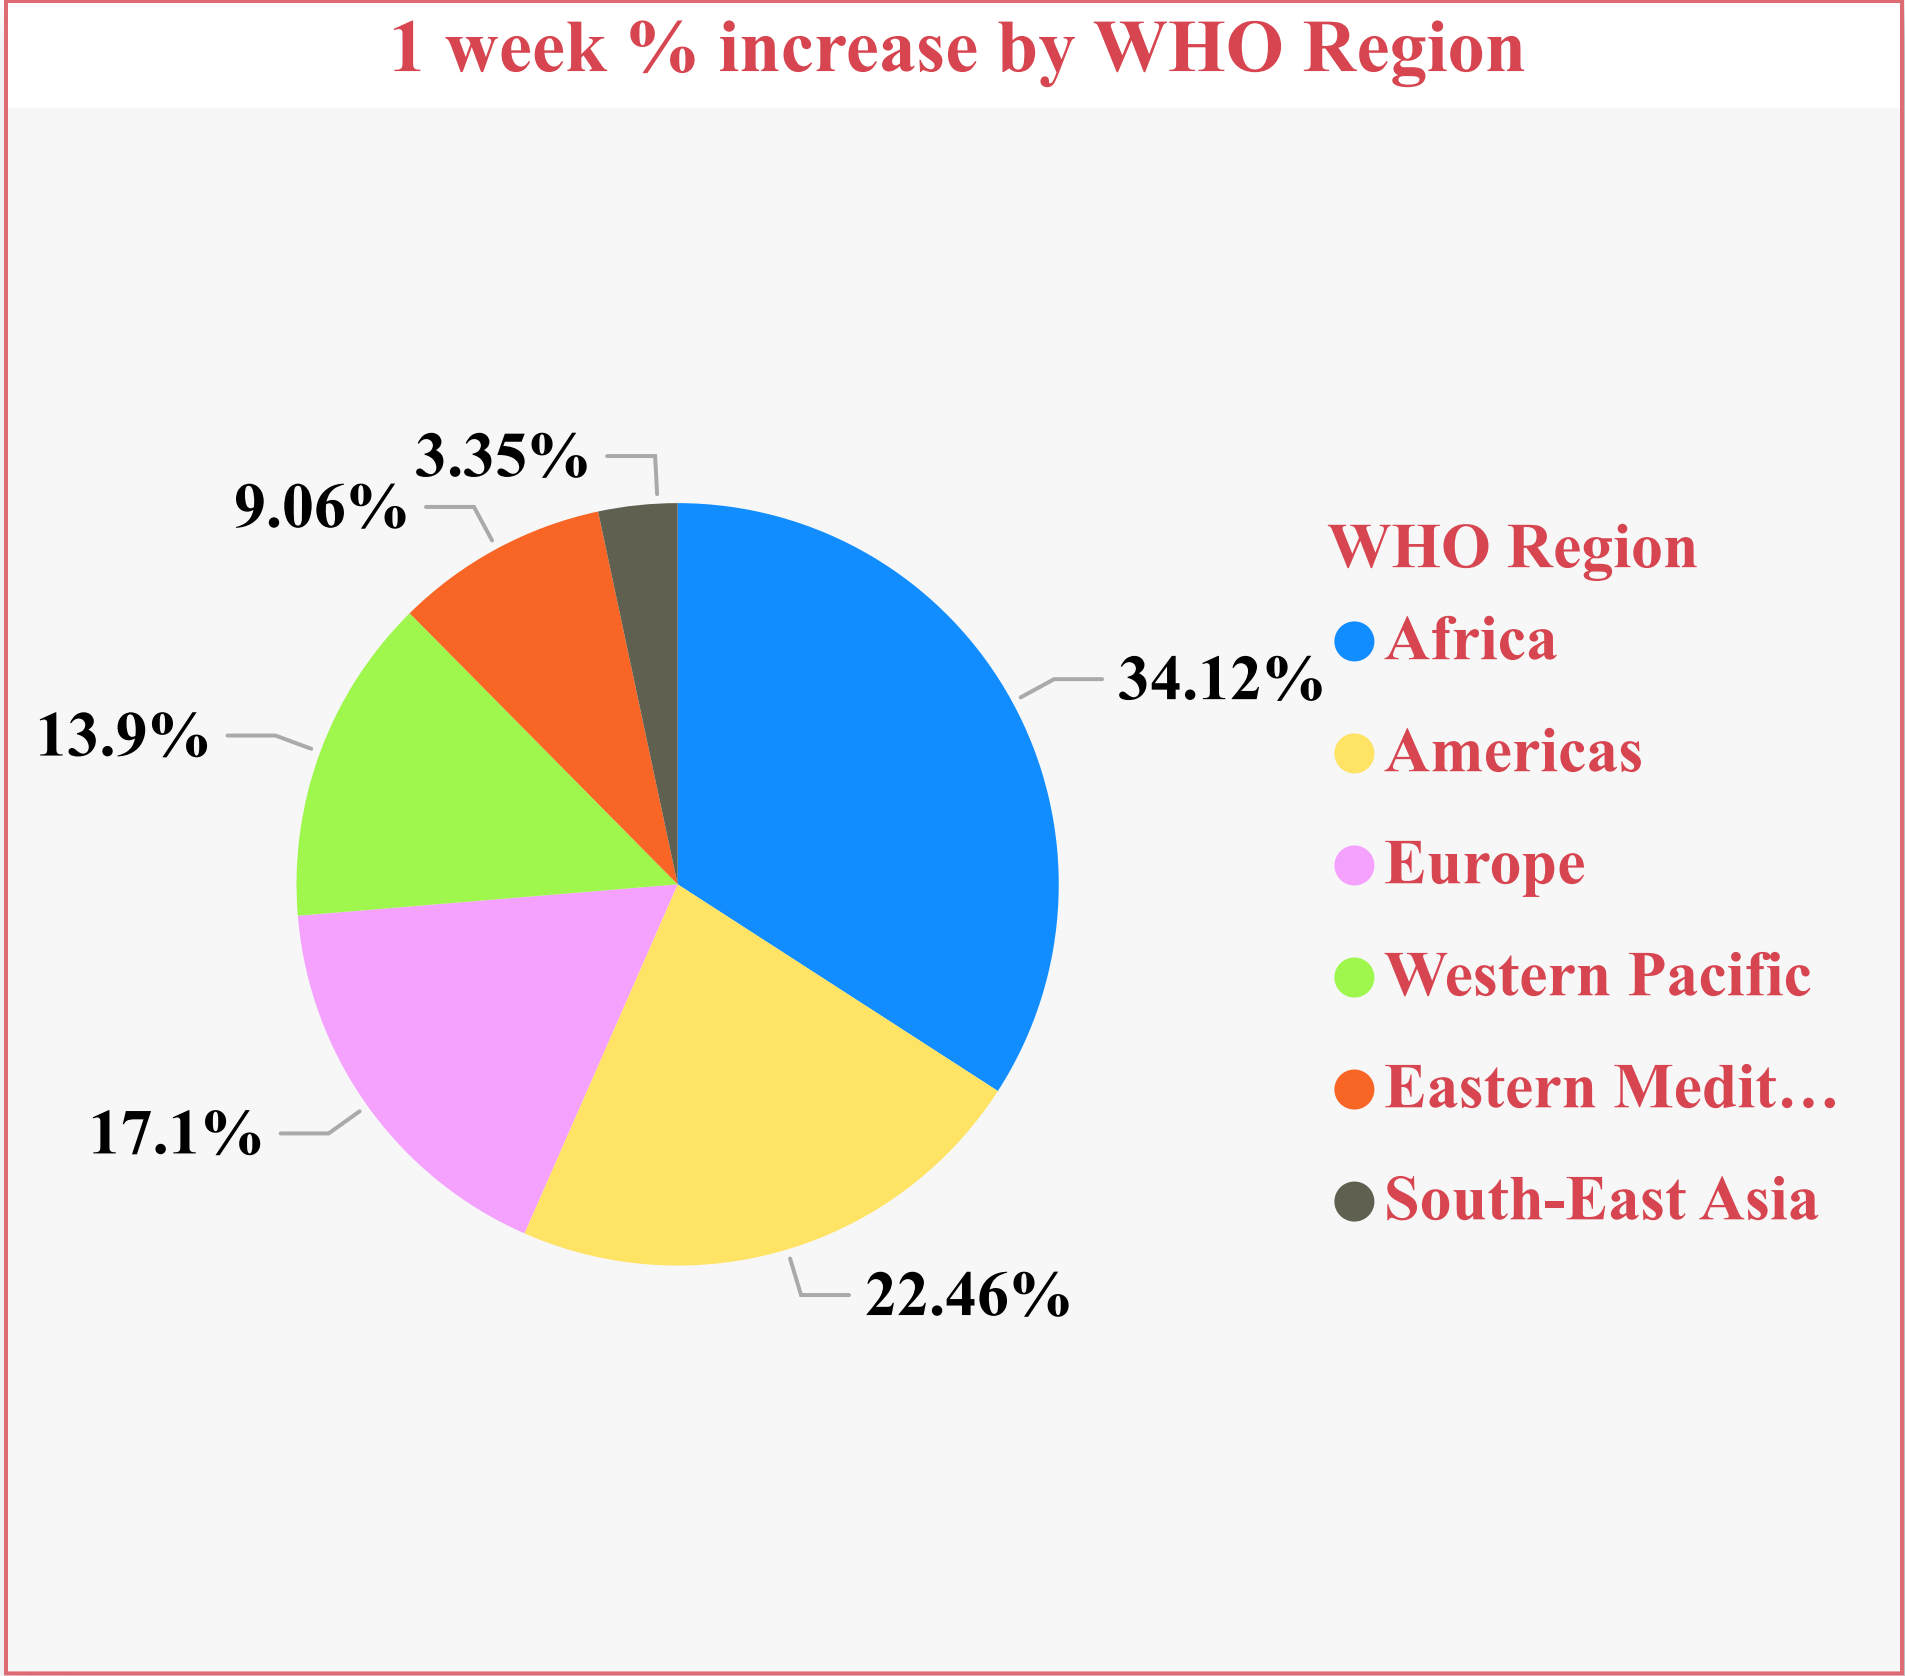

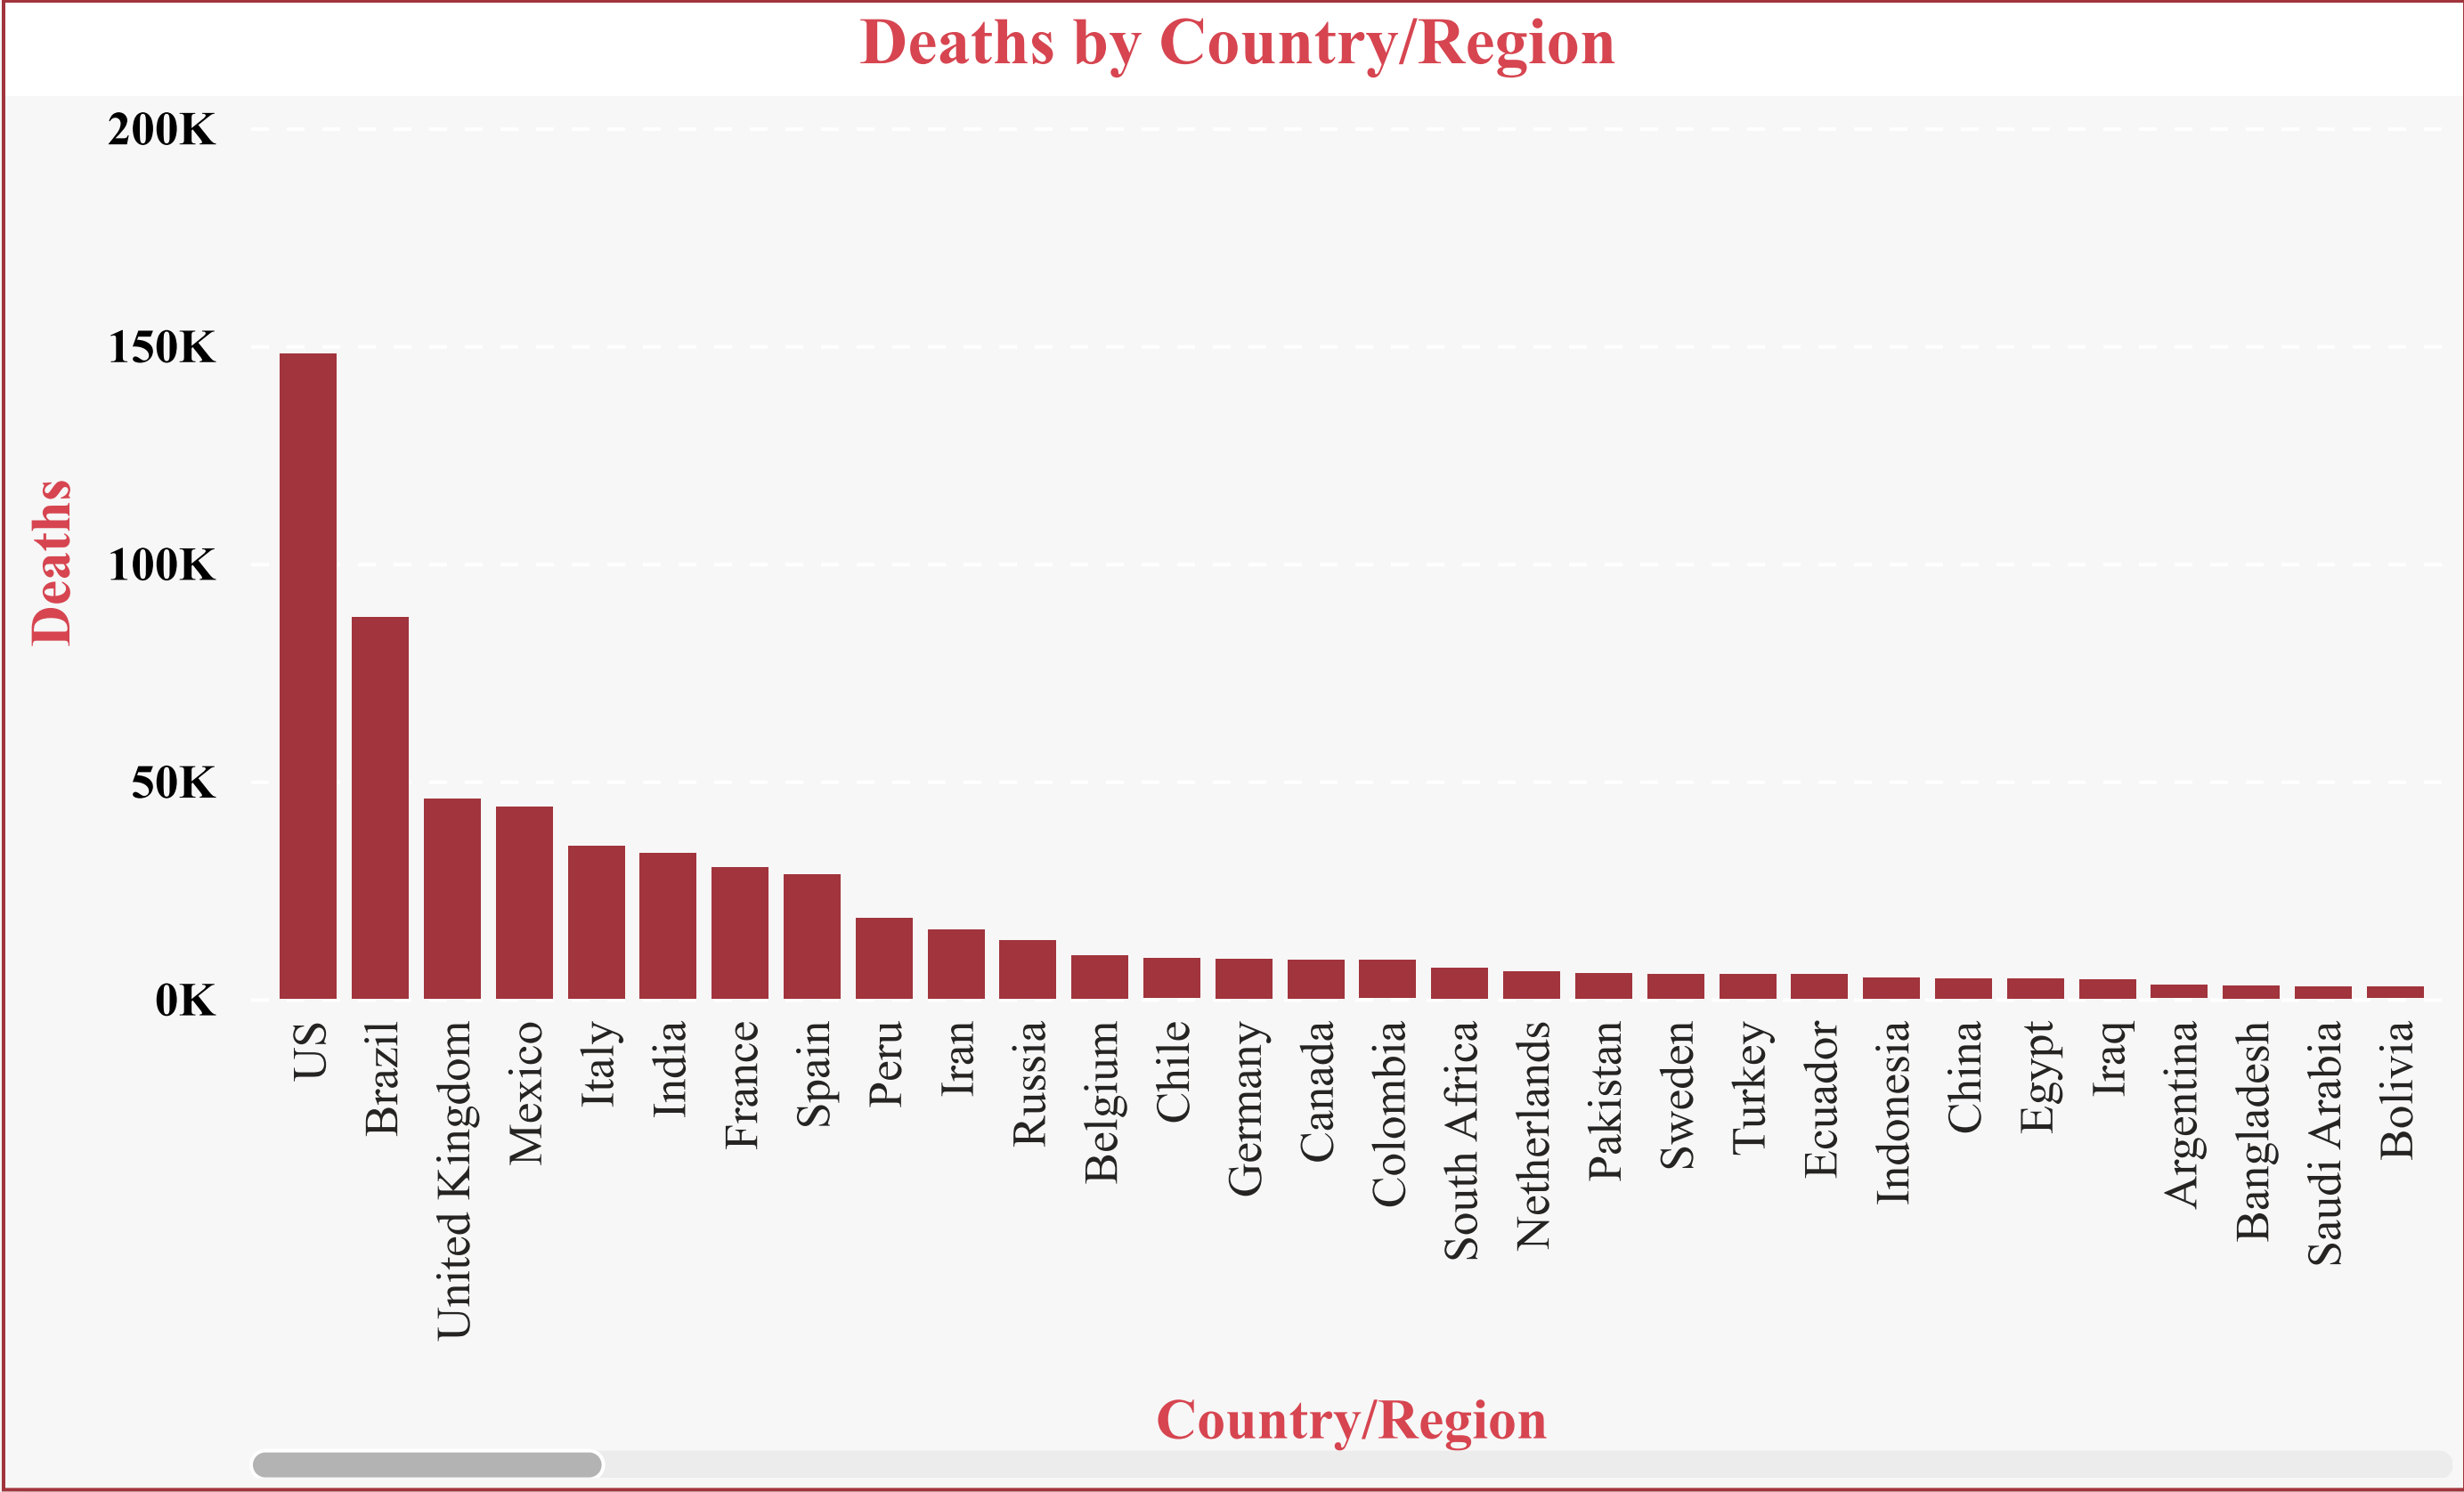

564.65

Deaths / 100 Cases

Deaths / 100 Cases and Recovered / 100 Cases by WHO Region

We note the fluctuation of active cases in the Middle East. In some countries, the percentage of active cases is high compared to other countries, and this indicates the different measures taken in the face of Covid disease..We note the fluctuation of active cases in the Middle East. In some countries, the percentage of active cases is high compared to other countries, and this indicates the different measures taken in the face of Covid disease.

The above graph shows the countries with the highest death rate from COVID-19

We can see here the percentage of weekly cases of Covid disease in each region, from which we can predict the measures to be followed to protect against this disease.